2. How to Reach the CNR Headquarters

Detailed instruction on how to reach the CNR headquarters can be found on the CNR web site (http://bit.ly/2opMOJh).

The fastest way to get there from Fiumicino airport is by Leonardo Express. This is a non-stop train service connecting Termini Station, Rome's train hub, with Fiumicino airport in only 32 minute. Trains depart every 15 minutes or every 30 minutes during certain times of the day. Service from Fiumicino Airport runs from 6.23 a.m. to 23.23 p.m, while back from Rome Termini starts at 5.35 a.m. with last train departing at 10.35 p.m. One-way ticket costs 14€ per person. Tickets can be bought online from the Leonardo Express web site (http://bit.ly/29xfpV8).

CNR headquarters are about 1.5 Km away from Termini Station (a 15-minutes walk following the itinerary indicated in the map below).
A less direct alternative to reach the meeting venue from Fiumicino airport is to take the regional train FM1 (direction Settebagni) and get off at Tiburtina station; there take bus line 71 (direction S. Silvestro, 6 stops) and get off at Via dei Marrucini (100 m away from the CNR headquarters).

You can buy the train ticket to Tiburtina station from the TreniItalia web site (http://bit.ly/1K2cGO9). Select Regional and insert “Fiumicino Aeroporto” in the From field and “Roma Tiburtina” in the To field. It takes 48 minutes and one-way ticket costs 8€ per person.

From Ciampino airport, you can reach the Termini Station by bus (it takes 40 minutes with normal traffic) and then follow the itinerary shown in the above map. One-way ticket costs 5€ per person.

3. Public Transportation

All local public transport is integrated in Rome. You have to purchase your tickets before you board any public transport in Rome. Tickets for both the bus system and metro can be purchased from tobacconists, bars, or vending machines at metro stations and major bus stops. On buses, trams and metro there is a flat fare, whether you go one stop or to the end of the line. On buses and trams your ticket is valid for 100 minutes allowing you to change buses using a single ticket. The BIT standard ticket is valid for one metro ride or 100 minutes on all buses and trams and costs 1.50€.
